“Proposals” being accepted for Wedding Bells project Event Management students want to plan wedding for a lucky local couple

Applications are now being accepted for the Niagara College Event Management program’s third-annual “Wedding Bells” project.

Students will take on the stress and time requirements of wedding planning for a lucky Niagara couple this spring. This project is part of the applied component of Niagara College's Event Management (Graduate Certificate) Program.

Couples will delegate tasks related to the wedding day, which must take place in March or early April 2009. Eligible couples must work with a planning committee on key decisions, responsibilities and standards. Students will work within any budget amount provided by the couple.

The deadline for applications is Sunday, September 14, 2008. For further information and application forms, visit www.niagaracollege.ca/weddingbells.

Event Management is a one-year Post-Graduate program and part of Niagara College’s School of Hospitality and Tourism. The program prepares students for careers in the planning, promotion and execution of special events in the public, corporate and non-profit sectors. As part of the program, students organize a number of events, including Wedding Bells and the Many Hands project.
