

niagararesearch

PAUL WILLIE, B.COMM, M.B.A.
COORDINATOR,
HOSPITALITY & TOURISM DIVISION

Paul joined Niagara College in 2003 and holds the following academic achievements: Bachelor of Commerce degree in Hotel and Food Administration, Masters of Business Administration degree, Certified Hotel Administrator, Certified Food Service Manager, Certified Hospitality Technology Professional, Certified Financial Manager, Certified Hospitality Accountant, Certified Management Accountant, and is currently working on a Doctorate in Business Administration.

Paul has over 25 years of professional industry experience as an educator, hotel manager and management consultant across Canada and in the Caribbean.

Email: pwillie@niagarac.on.ca
Phone: (905) 641-2252 x. 4609

PUBLICATIONS

Food and Beverage Financial Management: The Value of Getting the Price Right

The Bottomline, The Journal of Hospitality Financial and Technology Professionals.

Volume 18, Number 5. August/September 2003. Pages 26 – 27.

Embracing Technology to Help Build Brand Equity

The Bottomline, The Journal of Hospitality Financial and Technology Professionals.

Volume 21, Number 4. June/July 2006. Pages 12 – 15.

niagararesearch

Labor Rules: Lines on the Map

A Review of Different Nation's Immigration Policies and their Effect on the Hospitality Industry

The Bottomline, The Journal of Hospitality Financial and Technology Professionals.

Volume 22, Number 1. February/March 2007. Pages 26 – 29.

Outlook on Revenue Management: Challenges & Opportunities for 2007

The Bottomline, The Journal of Hospitality Financial and Technology Professionals.

Volume 22, Number 2. April/May 2007. Pages 14 - 17.